

Townspeople Talk About Motorcycle Gang Shootout

Updated: Monday, 30 Aug 2010, 4:13 PM MDT

Published : Saturday, 28 Aug 2010, 11:06 PM MDT

CHINO VALLEY, Ariz. - The Hells Angels motorcycle gang is something we don't hear about until there are problems, usually involving shots fired, which is exactly what happened last weekend north of the valley.

Five men (see pictures at left) remain behind bars in connection with last weekend's shootout in Chino Valley. There were 27 people arrested initially after what law enforcement said was a confrontation between biker gangs, with the other gang being the Vagos.

John Anthony Bernard, Kiley Steven Hill, Robert Edward Kittredge, Bruce Andrew Schweigert Sr., and Larry Dean Scott Jr. were each charged with a number of counts of aggravated assault, disorderly conduct, and participating in a criminal street gang.

They are being held in the Yavapai County Detention Center on $75,000 bond.

FOX 10 goes back to discover more on the showdown in Chino Valley. Linda Williams has more.

Biker Gangs Book: "Running With the Devil" The True Story of the ATF's Infiltration of the Arizona Hells Angels, by valley resident Kerrie Droban: <http://www.kerriedroban.com/>